Emerging growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

ITEM 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On May 27, 2026, the Board appointed Julie Knecht to become senior vice president and Chief Financial Officer (Chief Accounting Officer) of Texas Instruments Incorporated (the “Company”) effective August 1, 2026. Ms. Knecht will succeed Rafael Lizardi, who will retire after 25 years with the Company. Mr. Lizardi’s retirement is not related to the Company’s financial or operating results or to any disagreements or concerns regarding the Company’s financial or reporting practices or internal control over financial reporting. In connection with Mr. Lizardi’s retirement, the Company and Mr. Lizardi expect to enter into a separation agreement as described beginning on page 46 of the Company’s 2026 Proxy Statement in the section subtitled “Separation agreements”.

Ms. Knecht, 54, has served in various positions with the Company for more than 25 years, including most recently as vice president and Chief Accounting Officer since 2021. In connection with her appointment, Ms. Knecht will receive an annual base salary of $700,000, and equity compensation totaling $2 million in restricted stock units.
